Introduction

* * *

We wish to extend our hearty thanks to all who helped by sending in their records,. You will probably find some mistakes which is almost impossible to avoid, and I'm sorry that I couldn't get them all, but I hope everyone enjoys going through these pages every once in a while.

We have provided only one index in the back of this book with the name of the descendants first, following by its marriage partner. The numbers following the names in the index refer to families not pages.

Grandfather Andrew Yoder when a young man moved to Stark Co., Indiana close to Plymouth, Indiana and died and was buried there a young man when Dad was 5 years old. So Grandmother put him out to other people to raise. A Jonathan Yoder living near Shipshewana on the farm now occupied by Lewis Hostetler took him to raise, and he had a good home, afterward he preached in both their funerals. When he was about sixteen he worked for Dan Yoder at Honeyville, and had a good home there, too. In 1889 he went to Holmes Co., Ohio, got married there, and stayed there about a year and their first son Dan was born there. I think he owned the Charm store at one time then he sold out and moved to Indiana on the farm $\frac{1}{4}$ mile south of Honeyville store and from there to the Johnnie Christner farm three-fourth mile south of the Honeyville store in the year 1855. In 1906 he bought the Joe Bear farm and moved there March 15; this is the farm which Orville Christners now occupy. In the spring of 1927 Dad and Wills moved to the hawpatch on the farm owned by Will Yoder on Road 5 and lived there about two or three years. Then he moved to the Isaac Schrock farm on Road 5 and there Mother died, and about the year 1938 he moved to Yoder corner on the Od Sam Yoder farm. In 1943 he moved in with us when we lived $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles southwest of Ligonier, he was there one year, then moved to Monroes one mile north and $1\frac{1}{4}$ mile east of Ligonier and in Nov. 24, 1946 he died and was buried in the Honeyville Cemetery beside Mother.

Dad was baptized in the Town-line Conservative Church, and Mother was Old Order Amish and they lived together that way for over ten or eleven years. Mother didn't want to change, so Dad talked with his mother about it, so Grandma said if he wants to join the Old Order Amish its alright with her, so Dad changed to Old Order Amish and soon after, he was ordained minister, that was in Nov.9, 1902 and in May II, 1924 he was ordained bishop.

He preached many funeral services because he had a loud clear voice and most everybody liked to hear him.
